

FENCING SUMMER CAMP 2009

Session 1: August 10 – August 14

Session 2: August 17 – August 21

Ages: 9 – 16

Hours: 9am – 3pm

Maryland Fencing Club invites you to join us for Summer Camp 2009! Each day will include a variety of fencing activities including physical conditioning, footwork, group drills, group lessons, private lessons, controlled bouts, and open bouts. In addition, there will be instruction in equipment repair, refereeing, and coaching. We will show fencing videos from world-class competitions and fencing-oriented films during lunch. Each session will end with a tournament on Friday. The club will provide masks, body cords, and electric epees as needed.

The club is located at 3011 Emmorton Road in Abingdon, just 15 minutes north of White Marsh. Take Interstate-95 north to exit 77 (Route 24 North to Bel Air), then turn right on Emmorton Road (Route 924). Fencing club will be on the right, just after Giant Food, just before Walgreen's, next to Rita's Water Ice.

ENROLLMENT WILL BE LIMITED – RESERVE YOUR SPOT TODAY

CAMP REQUIREMENTS – FENCERS MUST:

- Be age 9 or older by the first day of camp
- Be a member of the U.S. Fencing Assoc. OR a student or club member of Maryland Fencing Club
- Have at least 2 months of fencing experience as of the first day of camp
- Bring a fencing jacket, glove, knickers, underarm protector, long socks, and shoes each day.
- Bring a lunch, snacks, and drinks each day. Next door to the club is a Walgreen's (with a grocery section), Fortunato's Pizza & Subs, and a Rita's Water Ice.
- Foil and saber fencers must be willing to sometimes fence epee. Foil and saber fencers will be able to bout each other and get private lessons in foil or saber, but most camp participants will be epee fencers and as such, many of the fencing activities will be designed for epee fencers.

ABOUT THE COACH: Coach Greg Paye has been involved in fencing for over 20 years. He is a certified instructor in foil, saber, and epee with the U.S. Fencing Coaches' Association. His professional coaching experience includes Boston University, Goucher College, D.C. Fencers Club, Boston Fencing Club, and Baltimore Fencing Center.
